CLAIMS IN KENTUCKY.

Both Sides Profess Confidence in the Result.

REPUBLICANS ARE UNITED AND SOLID.

Democrats are Split and Bolting Has Been Announced.

COMPARING WITH LAST YEAR.

Special From a Star Correspondent. LOUISVILLE, Ky., October 31.—Next Tuesday's balloting will determine whether Kentucky is to be wrested from the democratic column of states. The republicans are bending every effort, and are favored by apparently fortuitous circumstances. Old politicians here say that Kentucky was never nearer slipping away from the democrats than it is now.

The campaign hinges upon the selection of a governor, state ticket and a portion of the legislature, the latter to elect the United States Senator to succeed Senator Blackburn. The democratic candidate, Mr. Hardin, is running a free silver campaign on a sound money platform, while the republican candidate, Mr. Bradley, is a hard money man, with no entangling alliances.

THE OFFICIAL WEATHER MAP.

EXPLANATORY NOTE. Observations taken at 8 a. m., 75th meridian time. Solid lines are isotherms or lines of equal air pressure, drawn for each tenth of an inch. Dotted lines are isobars or lines of equal temperature, drawn for each tenth of a degree. The words "High" and "Low" show location of areas of high and low barometer. Small arrows show the wind.

WARMER TOMORROW. The Rain Tonight to Be Followed by Fair Weather. Forecast till 8 p. m. Friday: For eastern Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware, threatening weather and rain; easterly winds; slightly warmer Friday afternoon.

For the District of Columbia and Maryland, rain this evening and tonight, fair Friday noon; northeasterly winds; warmer Friday afternoon.

For Virginia, rain, followed by fair in the interior; warmer; northeasterly winds.

Weather conditions and general forecast: General rains are reported from the southern states and the Ohio valley and light snows from the north. The following heavy rainfalls (in inches) were reported:

During the past twenty-four hours—Chattanooga, 12; New Orleans, 10; Vicksburg, 1.02; Huntsville, Tex., 3.10; Columbia, Tenn., 1.10; Florence, Ala., 1.20.

It is warmer in the central valleys and on the middle Atlantic coast, and colder in Rocky Mountain districts.

The indications are that rain will prevail on the Atlantic coast tonight from New England southward to Florida, and fair weather will prevail Friday in the Gulf States and the Ohio valley, preceded by showers today.

Temperature and condition of water at 8 a. m.: Great Falls, temperature, 47; condition, 38. Reservoir, temperature, 57; condition at north connection, 30; condition at south connection, 36. Distributing at about three o'clock, temperature, 57; condition at north connection, 30; condition at south connection, 36.

The Drought at an End. Prof. Moore, chief of the weather bureau, said this morning that rain was falling throughout the drought region from New Mexico to New England, and he gave the welcome intelligence that the drought was broken. This one storm may not be sufficient to break the drought, but it is a safe prediction that this one will be followed by a succession of storms ranging toward the northeast from the southwest.

Range of the Thermometer. The following were the readings of the thermometer at the weather bureau today: 8 a. m., 42; 2 p. m., 43; maximum, 47; minimum, 32.

THE MOODY CHOR. A Social Anniversary Gathering at Calvary Baptist Church. The second anniversary of the organization of the Moody choir was celebrated last evening at the Calvary Baptist Church.

There was a delightful musical entertainment, which was presided over by a collection, and there was a general attendance of the members of the choir. This organization, as is well known, has its origin at the time of the great Moody and Sankey meetings at Convention Hall, and the music rendered by the mammoth chorus was one of the most memorable features of the meetings.

The choir, presented to Mr. Foster a handsome ice cream set of Dresden, which Mr. Foster accepted with a speech of thanks. Miss Alice Kimball and Mrs. A. J. Brown, the accompanists of the choir, were made the recipients of a silver hat brush, respectively.

The committee in charge of the exercises of the evening consisted of Miss Mollie S. Lord, chairman, Miss Estelle, secretary and treasurer; Mrs. F. B. Woodman, Mrs. M. D. Peck, Mrs. W. P. Hough, Mrs. F. A. Wilson, Mrs. W. B. Lane, Miss Goldie, Miss Manchester, Miss Homer, Miss Sleman, Miss A. Kimball, Miss Edith Carrigan, Miss Dora Knight, Miss Edith, Miss McMillan, Miss McElfresh, Miss Shiel, Miss Enderle, Miss Dana, Mrs. Brown.

The general committee consisted of Mr. Foster, Dr. Peck, Dr. F. B. Woodman, Mr. F. A. Wilson, Mr. P. M. Hough and Mr. W. J. Palmer.

WILL NOT VOTE THIS YEAR. Republicans in Prince George's County Rule Out the Court. Correspondence of the Evening Star.

UPPER MARLBORO', Md., Oct. 30, 1895. At a special sitting of the circuit court held here for the purpose of hearing appeals from the decisions of the registration officers of the 14th election district of this county, with Chief Judge Briscoe and Associate Judges Brooke and Crain, comprising a full bench, about fifty appeals were heard.

The third and fourth appeals were heard and to get the court to order the registration officer to take from the list some democratic voter not, according to their interpretation of the registration law, entitled to vote in this state or county. There were few cases where a democratic had not taken all the requirements of the law into consideration before vacating the place he had been voting, but a good many republicans have had the law in mind.

Prominent among these were the cases of Wm. E. Meador, of Naylor, a voter for many years, who has been a member of the Prince George's county. He has been a member of the Prince George's county for many years, and has been a member of the Prince George's county for many years.

The general committee consisted of Mr. Foster, Dr. Peck, Dr. F. B. Woodman, Mr. F. A. Wilson, Mr. P. M. Hough and Mr. W. J. Palmer.

THE RAILROAD CROSSINGS. Metropolitan Company Will Enforce. The Metropolitan Railroad Company received this morning from the District Commissioners an official communication notifying it of the issuance of the recent order directing that all trains and engines on steam railroads within the city limits of Washington should come to a full stop before crossing the tracks of any street railroad.

Metropolitan, through the District Commissioners, announced that if the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad Company violated the order the matter would be taken into the courts, and a final decision on the question reached. The regulation, under the law, cannot be enforced for thirty days after its publication.

She Left Her Card. From the Spectator. Some time ago, in passing through a churchyard in Lancashire, I saw a number of flower wreaths on a newly made grave. One among others had a card attached, with was written, "With Mrs. — a deep sympathy," and printed in the corner, "At home on Fridays."

Infants and Children. CASTORIA PROMOTES DIGESTION, and overcomes Flatulency, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea and Feverishness. This child is rendered healthy and able to sleep NATURAL. CASTORIA contains no morphine or other narcotic property.

"CASTORIA is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription I know of." H. A. AICHEER, M.D., 111 So. Oxford st., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"For several years I have recommended 'Castoria,' and shall always continue to do so, as it has invariably produced beneficial results." EDWIN F. PARDEE, M.D., 125th st. and 7th ave., New York City.

ADJUTANT WOOD HOME AGAIN.

The Salvation Army to Give Her a Welcome Tonight.

There will be a great rally of the soldiers, auxiliaries and friends of the Salvation Army, at the Soldiers' and Sailors' Home, 1629 Pennsylvania avenue, tonight at 8 o'clock, to welcome back Adjutant Isabel Wood, who has been visiting her old home in England during the past six weeks. The incessant work and nightly meetings in the hall and open air during the long summer, the first she had ever passed in such southern latitudes, were upon Adjutant Wood's health, and she was obliged to take what was an unusually long rest, and took advantage of it to visit her family, whom she had only seen once since she came to this country to live. The ocean trip had done her much good, and she returned today well prepared to face the winter campaign. Adjutant Wood, by the term of her character and manner, and the power of her speaking and singing, has made a great number of personal friends since she came to Washington last spring, and she will make her much welcome to the meeting tonight. At tonight's meeting a new flag will be presented to the local corps by Washington friends of the district, and Adjutant Wood's absence, and they will take part in tonight's meeting.

A Hope Story. "Uncle John and the Rubies," a story of great interest by Anthony Hope, will be published complete in Saturday's Star.

War of Rates at Atlanta. The Atlanta exposition receipts Tuesday were the largest since the opening, not excepting Liberty Bell and Cleveland days. There was no special feature yesterday.

A war has opened between the street railways and the Southern Railway on fares to the exposition. Both the electric and the steam roads started off charging 10 cents. Then the electric cut to 5 cents for school children. The Southern cut to 5 cents for all children. Next the electric lines carried 10 children free for a day. Now both systems announce a 5-cent fare for every one Thursday. There is a prospect of even cheaper fares.
